Re: Remsen - Lake Placid Rail/Travel Corridor

Dear Agency Members and Staff: Dec. 10, 2015

I write to provide comments for consideration in examining the NYS DEC proposal Alternative 7. I'm a business owner in Saranac Lake and a fulltime/longtime Adirondack resident.

There are many reasons to keep the train rails running all the way from Utica to Lake Placid. The proposed plan of ripping them out from Tupper Lake to Lake Placid would be a terrible mistake on so many levels.

The rail connection at Utica provides an opportunity to bring tourists – the main source of income for most of us who live and work full time in the park – from major cities all over the U.S. sans automobiles. There is no major highway running thru the center of the 'dacks (and we don't want one). It's certain that
